Section 3 – SWINE CARCASS

Superintendent – Stacey Vandefifer, 269-509-7038

Asst – Chuck Lund, 269-792-0916

Live Show: Thursday, July 9th

Carcass Evaluation: Saturday, July 11th

Cutting instructions for all carcass animals must be handed in by July 11th to Geukes Market

1. Any 4-H'er interested in participating in the swine carcass contest must register on their MDA form in an effort to reserve enough room for all participants.
2. There is a limit of 25 carcasses. Anyone interested may bring their animal to the live show at the fairgrounds. The top 25 will be eligible for carcass evaluation.
3. Any pigs not in top 25 are to be removed directly following live evaluation. NO pigs are to be left on the fairgrounds.
4. Each 4-H'er will be permitted to enter one hog in the carcass competition.
5. Hogs used in the carcass competition must have a minimum weight of 230 lbs. and not exceeding a maximum weight of 290 lbs. The hogs will be weighed in upon unloading at the live show. The official weight will be determined by the scales in possession of the Barry County 4-H Livestock Developmental Committee.
6. PQA must be current and numbers presented at unloading for live show.
7. Swine tagging forms must be completed at tagging in April, and turned into the Extension Office by the first weekend in May. The swine ear tag number at Carcass Check-in must match the number on the Swine Tagging forms.
8. All participants MUST BE in attendance and active at both the live show and Carcass Evaluation. Those who fail to attend either the show or the carcass evaluations will be disqualified.
9. Carcasses will be placed on a calculated carcass price per hundred weight. A base carcass price will be determined at the time of the show. Deductions from the base will be taken for carcasses that are outside an acceptable range. These deductions are based on data from published USDA reports.
10. The Grand Champion Carcass will be sold during the Large Animal Livestock Sale at the Barry County Fair.

11. Participants are responsible for contacting a buyer for the carcass and for slaughter costs.

12. Participants and parents will be required to sign a waiver of liability regarding the transportation of the hog from the fairgrounds to slaughter.

13. Pictures will be taken during the live show; Carcass evaluation to be displayed in swine barn during the Barry County Fair.

DEPARTMENT 12 YOUTH – POULTRY

SUPERINTENDENT: Kay Booth, 269-623-8015

Asst. Supt: Andy Tobias, 269-838-9336

Show Secretary: Mary Guy 269-945-4835

Teen Supt.: Corbin Angus & Tyler Agostini

JUDGING: Sunday, 9:00 a.m.

1. Each poultry exhibitor is required to submit a registration form to his/her poultry club leader by the due date for the fair entry (MDA) form. A supply fee of $0.75 per bird MUST be paid to his/her poultry club leader at that time. It is the leaders' responsibility to provide the registration forms & supply fees for their clubs to the poultry show Secretary. Registration forms can be obtained from poultry club leaders or the Extension web site www.msue.msu.edu/barry.

2. A fee of $.50 per bird for manure disposal and $.50 per market bird for insurance is due with MDA fair registration. Exhibitors are responsible for providing their own cage bedding (shavings).

3. Check-in will be from 12 noon – 8pm on the Friday before fair. Proof of negative Pullorum test must be shown at check in. No birds will be checked in after Friday night. Market birds will be weighed (one time, on the scale in the possession of the Poultry Developmental Committee) on Saturday at 11:00am. Entries to remain on display in the barn for duration of the fair. Exhibitors are encouraged to have their birds tested before they arrive at the fair. Those birds that arrive untested at check-in will be tested outside of the show barn in a tent set up for that purpose. All of the birds from a given farm/homestead will be tested and shown to be negative before any will be allowed to coop in.

4. No exhibit is to be placed in the building until examined by the superintendent or his/her representative. See MDA Health Rules. NO LICE OR MITES. All poultry, other than waterfowl, pigeons & doves, must be Pullorum tested no more than 30 days prior to fair. Pullorum testing will be available on fairgrounds only during Friday check-in.

5. Barn duty schedules will be posted for all clubs. Daily cleaning, feeding & watering are the responsibility of the exhibitor. If this is not done by 10:00am the exhibitor's cage will be red tagged. After 3 red tags, the exhibitor's animal(s) will be sent home & no premiums will be awarded.

6. Exhibits may be removed Sunday morning (after fair) between 12:00 & 12:30 AM or between 6:30 & 8:00 am. Exhibitors are expected to assist with cage/barn clean-up activities on Sunday from 8:00 am until completion. All poultry not removed by 8:00 am Sunday will be disposed of.

7. During the fair, Monday-Saturday, the building will be open 7:30 a.m.-10:30 p.m.

8. Heavy crocks or plastic dishes that hang on the cage are to be provided by the exhibitor for feed and water. Plastic, aluminum or tin cans are not acceptable.

9. No unworthy, undersized, overweight or immature specimens will be awarded a premium, whether there is competition or not.

10. Animals are not to be removed from the cages, except for show and sale day, or for a supervised demonstration with superintendent approval.

11. PREREGISTRATION REGULATION

a. All birds must be entered in the name of the bonafide 4-H, FFA or other youth.

b. All birds to be exhibited in the current fair must be pre-registered at the Extension Office or the Barry Expo office by May 1st.
